Koger to Be Installed as Welfare Board Chairman

Glenn Koger, Torrance business and civic leader, will be seated as chairman of Harbor Area board, Welfare Federation of Los Angeles, at the third annual installation ceremonies, slated for Thursday, March 19, at 7 p.m. at the Plush Horse, 1700 S. Pacific Coast Highway.

Koger, who served as Harbor Area campaign chairman for the 1958 Community Chest fund appeal, is vice president and general manager of Rome Cable Corp., a member of Torrance Rotary Club and of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

A Palos Verdes resident, Koger succeeds Jay A. Robinson, whose term on the area board continues until 1960, is a member also of the Los Angeles Welfare Federation board of governors. He is currently serving on the general budget committee and the committee on welfare planning council needs.

ON THE SLATE presented by Frode Kilstofte, nominations chairman, at the recent board meeting held at the Hacienda Hotel, Edward B. Patterson, San Pedro division manager of Southern Cities Gas Co., was moved up from second to first vice-chairman.

Newly elected to the Welfare Federation area board were Rev. Harold Isbel, Ed Russ and Ray Vida, of Gardena; Mrs. A. E. Kurz, Hollywood Riviera; Mrs. William La Porte and James Visceglia, Palos Verdes; Marion Young, San Pedro; Msgr. Daniel P. Collins, St. Lawrence Martyr Parish, Redondo Beach; James Becker and George Vico, Torrance.
